

Essentials of Drawing with Brighton Demerest-Smith

Lesson 4: Complex Multi Solids, Sphere & Egg

Outline:

Using simple solids to draw everyday objects

- Begin with the three dimensional structures of the egg and the sphere and the cone.
- The eye is a lot like a bowl.
- Usually a cast shadow is lighter than the object.
- Refining is the process of eventually building in detail.
- Weave the fabric of light across the form.