

Latin for Children Teacher Training with Dr. Christopher Perrin

Chapter 2: Verbs – Person, Number, and Tense

Outline:

Latin for Children A, Chapter 2: Verbs – Person, Number, and Tense

- Review the meaning of the grammatical concept.
- Study the maxim for the lesson.
- Translate the conjugation of the verb.
- Identify the stem from the four principal parts.
 - Take the “-re” off of the second principal part.
- All verbs have person, number, and tense.
 - Person - singular:
 - First person is “I”.
 - Second person is “you”.
 - Third person is a person farther away “he, she, it”.
 - Person - plural:
 - First person is “we”.
 - Second person is “you all”.
 - Third person more than one person farther away “they”.
- Study the derivatives for the chapter.