

Latin for Children Teacher Training

with Dr. Christopher Perrin

Chapter 4: Noun Cases

Outline:

Latin for Children A, Chapter 4: Noun Cases

- Review verbs and nouns.
  - Fill in the blanks for what defines a noun and verb.
    - Nouns
      - P_____
      - P_____
      - T_____
    - Verb
      - A_____ or
      - S_____ of B_____
  - Turn to the person beside you and define a noun.
  - Is a girl is a person, place, or thing? Puella is a noun.
  - Review the characteristics of a noun.
    - Gender (M/F/N)
    - Number (S or P)
    - Case (Nominative, Genitive, Dative, Accusative, and Ablative)
  - Dictionary listing of a noun.
- New learning:
  - Case endings for first declension nouns.
  - Chant endings for singular and plural for the first declension.
    - Chant quickly.
  - Determine the case and number with the chart.
  - Never Give Davus Any Apples
    - Nominative
    - Genitive
    - Dative
    - Accusative
    - Ablative
  - In Latin there are no words for “the” and “a”.
    - As you study Latin for these words, you will learn to do it in the context of the sentence (story).
  - Study derivatives for the chapter.