

Latin for Children Teacher Training with Dr. Christopher Perrin

Chapter 3: Nouns: Gender and Number

Outline:

Chapter 3: Nouns: Gender and Number

- Review and repeat in order to make learning permanent.
- Study new vocabulary.
- Study the derivatives that come from the Latin vocabulary.
- Review noun declension endings (inflections tell us what the noun jobs are - cases).
  - Nouns have case (noun job), number (singular/plural), and gender (masculine/feminine/neuter).
- Review 1st declension endings (feminine).
  - Endings are attached to stems.
  - Write in the stems with their endings.
  - Describe the cases of nouns as a brief review.
- Review 2nd declension endings (masculine and neuter).
  - Chant the endings (come up with your own song/chant).
  - Note the similarities and differences between masculine and neuter endings.
  - Nominative and accusative are always the same in the neuter form.
  - Look at a declension of a 2nd declension noun (ludus, masculine form).
- Translate a few sentences.
  - Label the parts of the sentence.
  - Parse the noun and adjective.
  - Parse the verb.